Middle School Musings

By Bianca Anghelache

Grade 6

It's the first day of school, you're ready to go.

You got your hair in a bun and your new shoes are aglow

Your first class starts, but where do you go?

Ask your new friends, I am sure they'll know!

Find the classroom and you play little games, but you wonder
"how will I ever know all these people's names?"

You meet your new teachers for the next year or so, but you wonder if you'll like them - you never know!

So it's the end of the day, you get on the bus - but it's not that easy, you're in a rush

You got soccer to go to, pianos to play and not to mention telling your parents about your day!

You've finished all the activities in your day, and now it's time to fall asleep...YEEY!
